

GREENWICH VOTES TO BE CAST LIKE GATLING GUN FIRE

Real Opposition in Town at Last—850 Ballots Must Pile Up in 90 Minutes.

TO END MARSHALL RULE.

$50,000 Warren Paving Job Rouses Progressives and Democrats to Fusion.

(Special to The Evening World.) GREENWICH, Conn., April 7.—How to cast 850 votes in an hour and a half is one of the puzzles before the residents of the Borough of Greenwich tonight when a brisk campaign against the Walsh-Smith ring will come to a close.

In previous Borough elections there has been little interest and Warden H.
B. Marshall and his associates have hitherto had practically no opposition.
This year the Progressives and Democrats have allied themselves in a fusion ticket made up of Edwin C. Ray, a successful New York business man, for Warden. The Burgesses, Gilbert B.
Bogert and Albert L. Richardson, both New York business men, and Charles F.
Stead, William Timmons and Thomas Newton, who are local business men respected for their independence, and A. Augustus Brush, a wealthy conservative resident and a member of the oldest families in town. For Clerk and Treasurer the fusion candidate is Harry Talbot, a popular young business man.
The Assessors nominated are Joseph A. Whelan, Charles L. Woolledge and John T. Evans, well known business men who have the confidence of the public. The Borough Attorney nominee is Ralph E. Brush, a New York attorney with a residence in the Borough. For Balliff Robert E. Talbot, a capable young business man, has been nominated.

The Borough debt has climbed from $35,500 in 1908 to $355,000 in 1913 under the Marshall regime, and the tax rate is about three times that of the town at large, plus the town tax. The great grievance, though, involves Warren Brothers of Boston, the patent paving people, who recently finished a $50,000 paving job, of which $42,000 appears to

RUNAWAY HORSE INJURES FOUR; UPSETS TWO WAGONS.

Throws Driver, Upsets Milk Wagon, Tears Into Sidewalk Crowd and Injures Policeman.

A horse hitched to a John Shuts Bread Company wagon and driven by Herman Mangels was frightened by a passing automobile at Broadway and Haywood street, Williamsburg, to-day and bolted. As the animal darted to one side to avoid the auto the bread wagon struck an "L" pillar and Mangels was thrown to the pavement.

The horse galloped through Broadway which was crowded. At Penn street Joseph Crockett, driving a Union Milk Company wagon, did not turn his horse quickly enough and the bread wagon hit his vehicle, throwing him headlong to the street. He spread out his hands and broke the force of his fall.

Policeman Cosgrove at that point swung onto the horse's bridle, but the animal, dragging him along, dashed onto the sidewalk into a crowd. William Wilhaup of No. 300 Wallabout street was knocked down. Cosgrove still hung onto the bridle and the horse was brought to a standstill at Hewes street.

Dr. Raskie from the Williamsburg Hospital treated Cosgrove's injuries and the three others, none of whom was seriously hurt.

The mere fact that there is nothing in a plain colored Carpet to cause it to go out of style, and therefore to lose its value, makes this offering very unusual.

several thousand yards of Carpets in plain colors, that were made in the best mills in America.

It is the Fashion this Year to look comfortable

It is the fashion to look easily graceful, to have the sinuous, bending, soft lines. And you can't look comfortable unless you feel so. You'll look so and feel so, if you wear an

R&G CORSET

because R & G has the long grace of perfect lines, the easy comfort of sensible corset making.

R & G corsets follow no fad. They follow strictly the fashion of the day, they follow strictly the lines of your figure—they are as stylish as they are comfortable.

One woman in ten wears an R & G corset now. If you are one of the other nine, you are missing the year-after-year satisfaction that the one woman is getting.

There's an R & G corset built to fit you and suit you exactly. When you go to the store—inset on that one.
See all styles of R & G corsets till you come to the one planned by our designers to fit your particular figure.
